RUTH SUES FILM PRODUCERS.

Sar in "Headin' Home" Alleges Violation of Contract.

New York, Oct. 12.—Babe Ruth's venture into the films ended in a legal action yesterday when he filed an injunction suit in the Supreme Court against William A. Shea, the producer, and Herbert H. Yudkin, distributor of his play, "Headin' Home," alleging violation of contract. Ruth asks that the defendants be restrained from farther sales of the film.

Ruth says he was to get $50,000 for taking the star part in the film, and alleges his appearance in the picture is the sole reason for its popularity. In spite of that fact the defendants have paid him only $15,000 of the $50,000 they agreed to give to him, se says.

Wiped Off Docket

Supreme Court Ends Hopes of Wets —Takes up Suffrage Suit

The United States Supreme Court yesterday finally cleared its docket of all cases attacking the validity of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, by denying a petition for a rehearing by Christian Fiegenspan, of New Jersey, and George C. Dempsey, of Boston, attacking both the prohibition amendment and the Volstead act. Both suits were among those decided by the court last June when it upheld both enactments. This denial cuts off all hopes of liquor forces of attacking the prohibition amendment's validity through the Federal courts.

The nineteenth amendment suit that came up was that brought against Secretary of State Colby to restrain him from issuing the proclamation of ratification. This suit was started here and was recently dismissed by the District Court of Appeals. Charles S. Fairchild, head of the American Constitutional League, who brought the suit, has asked the Supreme Court to review the case. He contends that Secretary Colby's proclamation is illegal because it lists Tennessee as one of the ratifying States. Tennessee has not legally ratified, he claims. The court is expected to announce soon whether it will advance the case.

PEACE OFFER SENT SOVIET TO WRANGLE

London Hears Special Envoy Is On Way To Southern Russia

GENERAL DESERTS

Famous Cavalry Leader Recruits Troops For Drive Against Kiev—Signing is Delayed

London, Oct. 12.—The Russian Soviet Government has sent a delegate with peace proposals to the headquarters of General Wrangel commander of the anti-Bolshevik army in Southern Russia, according to a Warsaw report received here by wireless from Berlin.

Paris, Oct. 12.—General Budenny, the famous cavalry leader, has definitely severed his connection with the Soviet Government, and is recruiting anti-Bolshevik troops for the purpose of marching on Kiev, according to advices reaching the French War Office.

General Semenoff in Siberia, also has informed General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia that Semenoff considers himself Wrangel's subordinate, and has requested orders from him.

Nikolaiev, the chief Russian naval station on the Black Sea, is reported to have been captured by anti-Bolshevik insurgents.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Mutinous sailors of the Bolsheviki warships in the Baltic have deposed Admiral Raskilnikov, commander of the fleet, according to reports along the Baltic received today by the State Department. Apparently the outbreak occurred simultaneously in the fleet and on shore, but the revolt on land was put down by armed forces.

Disorders reaching the proportions of revolts also were reported to have occurred at Saratov, Tambof, Wiasma and Smolensk. Advices from Poland said these outbreaks were regarded there as symptoms of the general unrest in all districts under soviet control.

Riga, Oct. 12.—The Russo-Polish armistice and preliminary peace treaty were not signed last night. It was announced that a delay until Tuesday afternoon was made necessary because of the impossibility of getting the Ukranian text prepared.

There are many unverified humors of late disagreements in the delegations. It is known that Secretary Lorenz, of the Bolshevik delegation, telephoned to the Poles shortly before 9 o'clock last night and apologized for inability to complete the Ukranian text for signature last night. He explained that it would be ready Tuesday afternoon.

The preliminary treaty must be ratified within 15 days after its signature and the formal exchange of ratification papers must take place at Libau within six days after ratification. Failure to so do will constitute an abrogation of the armistice within 48 hours after the time limit expires.

The preliminary treaty must be ratified before October 26, and the formal exchange of ratification must be effected at Libau by November 1. Otherwise, the armistice will expire automatically November 3.

The armistice specifically provides that fighting is to cease within 144 hours after signature of the preliminary peace terms and names midnight October 17 as the definite time war is to cease on land and sea and in the air.

Under the armistice terms both armies will remain in the positions held by them until the moment of ceasing operations, provided the Russian and Ukrainian troops are not nearer than 15 kilometers from the determined Polish front line. A strip of 15 kilometers between the two fronts will constitute a neutral zone in the military sense, which will remain under the administration of the side to which the territory goes under the preliminary peace terms.

Troop movements necessary to execute the armistice conditions must be executed at not less than 20 kilometers daily and must begin not later than midnight of October 18. The treaty will be executed under the direction of mixed commissions. The taking of hostages and the evacuation of civil prisoners will not be permitted during the withdrawal of the troops. Compulsory sale of goods and requisitions are forbidden.

He was shot yesterday by four auto bandits who entered the cafe and, holding him off with pistols, robbed the cash register of $40.

Shipyard Riveters Strike.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 12.—Three hundred riveters yesterday walked out of the plant of the Merchants Shipbuilding Corporation, demanding an increase in pay. The strikers said that another yard was paying more money for the same work, notwithstanding the fact that the Macy Board controls all the shipyards here.

Officials of the company declared that the strike was in violation of the working agreement and that the matter should have been referred to the board for action before calling a walk-out.

"UNCLE JOE" BREAKS WRIST

COX CHALLENGES TAFT'S SINCERETY

Asks Whether Former President Is Party to "Deliberate Deception"

QUOTES UTTERANCES

Nine Questions Fired at Harding Supporter, Who Once Denounced Obstructionists

Calls Them 'League Liars'

Canton, Ills., Oct. 12.—"League liars," was the characterization applied by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice-presidential candidate, in an address here last night to hundreds of prominent Republicans, "Who in their private and business life are models of rectitude, and who would not stoop to deceive, but who are daily making deliberate and malicious misstatements about the league of nations."

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Governor Cox, in his address here last night, propounded nine specific questions to Former President Taft bearing upon the latter's support of Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee.

The Democratic presidential candidate gave numerous quotations from Mr. Taft's statement today and past speeches in support of the league.

The Governor asked whether Senator Harding and the former President were not joined together "in deliberate deception."

One of the largest audiences of the Governor's campaign packed the Coliseum, where President Wilson was renominated four years ago. Local authorities said seats were provided for 12,400. Hundreds jammed the aisles tightly and window ledges An ear-splitting flag-waving demonstration lasting eight minutes was given as the Governor entered the Coliseum accompanied by Mrs. Cox. Before the Governor's arrival a demonstration lasting sixteen minutes followed the mention of President Wilson's name by John M. Atkinson, Democratic candidate for Governor

"Ex-President Taft," Governor Cox told a throng of thousands in the Coliseum, "in a recent statement, discusses the proposal of adopting the league of nations by leaving Article X, out of it, and responds to the suggestion with these words: 'That is exactly what we want.' I should like to ask Judge Taft these questions:

"Did you not, in an article to the Covenanter, under the title 'The Principle We Fought For,' discuss Article X. in these words: 'The law of the league, with the sanction of the league, thus forbids the violation of the international commandment. "Thou shalt not steal by force." It is the embodiment of the principle that we entered and fought this war to maintain'?

"2.—Did you not also, in the same article, say, 'The Monroe Doctrine as originally declared by Monroe, was Article X., limited to the aggression of non-American nations against countries of the Western Hemisphere'?

"3.—Did you not, in the same article, also use these words: 'Article X is one of the great steps forward provided in the league for the securing of general peace'?

"4—You say that the league to enforce peace, of which you were chairman, had not Article X in its proposition. Shouldn't you have been more frank with the American people by telling them that your plan only had four articles in it, and that your substitute for Article X was Article III? Can you deny that in your Article II you provided for the joint use of the military forces of the signatory powers in event of violation of the conditions of the covenant?

"5.—Did not your proposal carry a definite legal obligation to employ forces and in this respect was it not very much more drastic than Article X of the league?

"6.—You say that Senator Harding has already voted twice for the league with reservation, but you failed to say that your candidate within the last two weeks very definitely announced that if he had it to do over again he would not vote for the league even with the Lodge reservations.

"You say that Senator Harding promises that as President he will endorse the covenant without Article X. To whom has he given the prom-

TIDE FOR COX.

No one can doubt that the tide is now running strongly for Governor Cox and the League of Nations. And this is just about the stage of the campaign when the coming event casts its shadows before. In nearly every campaign the party that ultimately won seemed to be doing little or nothing in the early weeks, and the opposing party made loud claims of a tidal wave in its favor. But about three weeks before the ballots were to be cast the intentions of the American people became unmistakable, and the signs were ratified when the returns came in. It is now three weeks to the election, and Cox and the League are coming down the home stretch in great shape, while Harding, who has tried to reduce weight by throwing William Howard Taft over, is showing unmistakable signs of distress.

FAVORS WILD REPRISALS.

Premier Lloyd George, in a speech at Camarron, Wales, on Saturday last, gave what amounts to official approval of the reprisals indulged in by the police and the soldiers in Ireland. "He asked," says the Associated Press report, "whether, under the system of terrorism which made it impossible to obtain evidence, it was any wonder the police shot the murderers?" If the matter were not so serious this might be taken as a laughable Irish bull. If it is impossible to obtain evidence how could the police be sure it was the murdereds they were shooting? They couldn't of course; and so the Premier's words must be taken at their face value to mean that he believes the police to be justified in wild reprisals regardless of the innocence or guilt of their victims. This was exactly the German contention in Belgium during the war which so shocked decent people in this country and in England.

The war cost America a great deal of money, but in a year and a half a Republican Congress, which neglected everything else for politics, could not substantiate any of the charges of stealing or waste or incompetence. In comparing our expenses with those of the nations that were in the war longer, it is pertinent to observe that we paid our soldiers several times as much as any other country paid; that we had to transport our soldiers much farther by land and sea; that we fed our soldiers better than did others, and that we built ships and took over the Roads Appeal To Wilson.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.—The railroads of the country appealed yesterday to President Wilson against the ruling of the Comptroller of the Treasury that the Treasury Department should withhold from the roads all further payments due them under the guarantee provisions of the Transportation act until final accounting has been completed by the carriers.

Comptroller Warwick ruled that claims of railroads for income deficits during the period between March 1 and December 30, certified for payment by the Interstate Commerce Commission for less than the total deficit for the entire period, could not be made under the terms of the law. The Comptroller took the position that the guarantees to the roads must be paid in full and not by piecem

CARTER—In loving memory of Janie Carter who passed away 2 years ago today, October 12, 1918.

What is home without a mother?
All things the world may send,
When we lost our mother
We lost our dearest friend.

She wore a crown of patience
Though the years she struggled on,
Those hands that rest forever
Were the hands that made our home.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone.
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

The golden gates were open,
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewell unspoken
She calmly entered home.

The revenue men, acting on a tip, had secreted themselves along a lonely road and when the trucks, guarded by 10 men heavily armed, swung around a bend, one of the revenue agents swung a red lantern and ordered the trucks to stop. The answer was a volley of shots, one of the bullets smashing the lantern. Chiapusio was driving the lead truck, and he died with four bullets in his body from the revolvers of the revenue agents.

ise? Certainly not to Senators Johnson and Borah. Every one knows that he has not given it to the American people. Has he given it to you? If so, is it not so much in conflict with Senator Harding's recent statement that he proposes from now on to turn his back on the league—with or without reservations—that it joins both you and him together in deliberate deception?

"8.—Assuming that the pledge has been given to you, then may we not answer it with your own words, spoken at a luncheon given by the Civic Organization of California, in which you said:

"The gentlemen in the Senate who are setting out to defeat this league of nations are those I would not trust overnight.'

"9.—How do you reconcile your recent statement that the President was responsible for the failure to ratify the treaty with your statement in your Metropolitan Opera House speech March 5, 1919, as follows:

"If the President insists, as I hope he will, that the league be incorporated in the peace treaty, and brings it back, responsibility for postponing peace is with the body that refuses to ratify it,' and also with that part of your speech delivered January, 1920, at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, which reads:

"I am inclined to think that the persons who prepared the reservations as a whole, were shooting down the Avenue at the White House.'"

Judge Taft and Senator Harding were dual objects of Governor Cox's fire today here and in Illinois. In all four of the Governor's speeches to crowds yesterday at Springfield, Litch field and East St. Louis, Ill., and to his Coliseum crowd last night, Governor Cox emphasized that between him and Senator Harding was now the clearcut issue of "league or no league'

"A vote for the Senatorial candidate means a vote against the league, while a vtoe for me means one for the league,' The Governor declaring, denouncing the Senator's position as provincial, selfish, unholy and, in fact un-Christian."

How We Care For Your Meat Cars

When you see a Swift Refrigerator Car going by in a train, it seems a simple thing that it should be carrying fresh meat up and down the country.

Like most of the packer activities which contribute to your welfare, you are so used to having this going on uninterruptedly, day in, day out, throughout the year, that you are likely to take it as a matter of course.

But it is not a matter of course. Every car you see going by means long hours of minute, scientific, painstaking care in preparation for what it is doing.

Every time a car comes in it is washed out thoroughly with scalding water. If any taint, any foreign matter, were present, this would get rid of it. Even the meat hooks are taken down from the racks and scalded with water and live steam.

When the car is thoroughly cleansed we put in 5,000 pounds of ice. But that is only preliminary. It only cools the car to the proper temperature. By the time the car is moved over to receive its load, this first ice is melted. More is then put in to keep the car cool.

Then the meat is hung on the sterilized hooks and the load of food is ready for its journey. It arrives as it leaves, clean, fresh, wholesome, appetizing; and your meat supply goes on unaffected by seasons or weather.

This is only a part of the service which Swift & Company furnishes, at a profit to itself so small—averaging a fraction of a cent per pound on all products over a period of years—that if the profit were handed on to the consumer, it would make a difference of less than a nickel a week in the meat bill of the average American family.

Death From Sleep-Producing Drugs On Increase Following Prohibition

New York, Oct. 11.—Increase of deaths here from sleep-producing drugs, use of which, it is said, has been acquired by many persons since the advent of prohibition, has led Commissioner Copeland to order an investigation of sales of such drugs. Additional restrictions may be placed on their sale, he said.

The investigation was ordered because of a statement by Chief Medical Examiner Norris regarding the increase in deaths attributed to this cause. He said that alcoholic addicts, finding themselves nervous and sleepless in many instances where they have been unable to purchase liquor for their customary "night-cap" before retiring and the "eye-opener" on arising, had resorted to other artifical and dangerous ways of wooing sleep. The desired relief, he said, was obtained through the use of the nerve-quieting effects of certain drugs.

Dr. Copeland, in instructions to the Bureau of Foods and Drugs to begin an investigation immediately, referred to most of the drugs about which complaint has been made officially, as "treacherous somnificients," fifteen grains, of one of which, he said, were sufficient to cause death. He admitted that fatalities from the use of these drugs were "altogether too frequent."

Dr. Morris declared that deaths from sleep-producing drugs occurred in hospitals and in what formerly were sanitoriums for treatment of alcoholism. Deaths from such causes also had been recorded as suicides, he said. Sale of such drugs, he added should be governed by the same strict regulations as those governing the sale of poison.

Searchers Fail To Find Baby's Body

Egg Harbor City, N. J., Oct. 12.—The alleged confession of Augusto Pasquale that he accidentally smothered to death Blakely Coughlin, 15 month old, while kidnapping him from his home in Norristown, Pa., several months ago, led to a search for the body at New Gretna yesterday. Pasquale is said to have brought the child to New Gretna after the kidnapping.

The search was conducted by County Detective Nussbaum, of Atlantic City, with a party of volunteers, but they failed to find any trace of the boy's body. At New Gretna the searchers met Captain Gerhart, of the Pennsylvania State Constabulary; Major C. T. Larvelere and George H. Coughlin, father of the kidnapped baby.

It was reported last night that State police of Pennsylvania were bringing Pasquale to Egg Harbor City to have him assist in the search.

Palmer Begins Probe Of Coal Men.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Prosecution of anthracite coal operators for profiteering has been decided upon by Attorney-General Palmer, who yestrday ordered that evidence be gathered against mine owners in the Northeastern Pennsylvania field.

Mr. Palmer did not indicate when the evidence would be presented to the grand jury, except to say that it would be soon. He was understood to have ordered E. Lowry Humes, special assistant to the Attorney-General, to take charge of the investigation. Mr. Humes was called to the Attorney-General's office yesterday for a conference on the plans.

Department of Justice officials indicated their belief that many anthracite operators would be indicted under the antiprofiteering section of the Lever act.

No Meat In Paris After 2 P. M.

Paris, Oct. 12.—Because of the scarcity of meat the government has ordered that beginning today, meat shall not be served in the restaurants after 2 o'oclock in the afternoon.

With the announcement the price of vegetable dinners shot up until they are now as costly as meat.

Husband's Suicide Note Causes Wife To Relent.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Police are dragging the river bed for the body of Frank W. Nustrom, hotel man, and his wife has directed her attorneys to withdraw her suit for divorce. Nustrom had made several ineffectual attemps at a reconciliation with his wife, and finally wrote his attorney that if he could not live with his wife he did not care to live at all, and would plunge from the bridge into the river and give her all the freedom she desired. Parts of his letter read:

"I cannot stand it any longer, and I must make this note to you short. You will find my body in the river near the Adams street bridge, from which I shall plunge.

"I cannot endure it any longer. I want to live with my dear, loving wife. So if I cannot do that, I can't live any longer. I cannot sleep. I cannot eat or work, because I am so worried and I walk the streets day and night.

"Tell my wife I hope she doesn't have any luck with the property I worked so hard to accumulate. I hope she and her sister go to the same place I am headed for. Goodby."

It's a revelation to corn sufferers, the wonderful way that "Gets-It" banishes corns. Spend two minutes—that's all—to apply 2 or 3 drops to any corn or callus. The pain will stop instantly. In a few seconds the corn dries right up. Soon it has loosened so you can peel it off in one complete piece, root and all.

RHEUMATISM
Leaves You Forever
Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.
Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.
Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.
Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rhematism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

Homespun Folks is not a cocktail drama. It has romance and tenderness; it has pathos and robust comedy; it has tenseness and the rush of melodramatic action—but it never loses that deft, magnetic, masterful something that makes it a pastoral epic
